STEWART BROWNE & CO. SPLIT

STOCK EXCHANGE MEMBER AND STOCK TICKERS MOVE OUT.

Market Too Dull to Be Worth While, Says Mr. Browne, Who Has Started a New Firm-J. B. Newcome, the Retir-ing Partner, Sticks to the Market.

The New York Stock Exchange firm of Stewart Browne & Co., with a main office at 170 Broadway and branch offices at 45 Broadway, 18 Wall street, 500 Fifth avenue and the Hotel Savoy, to say nothing of the four or five out of town branches, dissolved partnership yesterday. The firm consisted of Stewart Browne, John E. Green, a son of the late Dr. Norvin Green, for many years president of the Western Union Telegraph Company and I. B. Newcome. Mr. Newcome was the Stock Exchange mem-

As a result of the dissolution the firm of Stewart Browne & Co., composed of Stewart Browne and John E. Green, will continue business at 170 Broadway; just what kind of business has yet to be disclosed. Mr. Newcome, the retiring member of the firm, will do a stock brokerage busi ness at 52 Broadway, as I. B. Newcome

The offices of Stewart Browne & Co are on the fourteenth floor of the Broadway Maiden Lane Building, and there are few more luxuriously furnished office suites in town. Mr. Browne's office overlooks Broadway, and is done in red, with solid mahogany furniture and a red upholstered lounge spacious enough for small family.

Mr. Browne was seated amid his magnificence when a SUN man called yesterday afternoon to inquire the cause of the dissolution of the copartnership. Mr. Browne refused to be quoted further than to say that, for the past two or three years, Stewart Browne & Co. had done one of the largest commission businesses in New York, that the business had dropped off as the market became dull, and that there was no longer enough net profit to satisfy the three members of the firm Therefore they concluded to dissolve.

Report has had it that Stewart Browne & Co. was one of the houses through which Dr. Woodend executed all orders that he felt called on to execute on the Stock Ex-change. Mr. Browne said that no such thing as a Stock Exchange investigation had anything to do with the dissolution of the firm.

By the same token, there is no significance in the fact that the reorganized firm has no tickers in its office. A firm which has retired from active brokerage business would have little use for stock tickers.

Mr. Browne is a Scotchman who came to this country in 1875. He is now not far from 40 years of age. At one time, he says, he was president of the International Trust Company which has been absorbed by the North American Trust Company.

Mr. Green was in Justiness at one time. Mr. Green was in business at one time in Louisville, had difficulties and came to New York. Mr. Newcome, the retiring member of the firm, has been a member of the Stock Exchange for several years. A few years ago he was suspended for a time from membership. Stewart Browne

A few years ago he was assented for a time from membership. Stewart Browne & Co. have been a Stock Exchange firm since Jan. 1, 1903.

The building in which the reorganized firm has its offices has been completed about a year. The firm, presumably through Mr. Browne, controls the leaseholds of the building. Mr. Browne was asked yesterday, after he had stated that his firm was to continue business at the old stand, what kind of business the firm was going to transact. He replied that that remained to be seen. He said that the market was too dull now to make it worth his while to bother with a brokerage business. When asked if his relations with the firm of Woodend & Co. had anything to do with the dissolution of the copartnership, he replied:

replied:
"That's nonsense. We were not the only firm that did business for Woodend. There were at least twelve others."

WOODEND TO OFFER A SETTLEMENT. One of the others has also dissolved. The bankruptcy proceedings growing out of the collapse of Dr. Woodend's brokerage concern were adjourned for a week yesterday, pending an offer of settlement that Dr. Woodend is to make. It is understood that he is prepared to offer about 25 per cent. of his liabilities in cash. He has already turned over securities alleged to cent. of his liabilities in cash. He has already turned over securities alleged to be worth $30,000, and says that his liabilities do not exceed $188,000. When asked yesterday, if he intended to go into business again, the doctor said:

"Of course I do. Why shouldn't I? I am not making any money by being idle, and it would be better for my creditors to give me a chance to do something."

Joshua de Cordova, an Englishman, who lent Dr. Woodend $14,000 last February to put into his business in return for three lent Dr. Woodend $14,000 last February to put into his business in return for three notes of the doctor, a bill of sale of the doctor's horses and a job as manager of a branch office at $75 a week, testified yes-terday that he let the doctor keep and use the horses after the sale. "What did you do for the $75?" asked Mr. Gruber.

Gruber.

"Nothing. I didn't render five cents' worth of service," replied De Cordova. He said he had spent some time at the office at the Hotel Endicott, but had done nothing to learn the business.

"Then you weren't competent to do

"Then you weren't competent to do anybody at the Thirty-third street office?" suggested Mr. Gruber. Mr. de Cordova took the matter seriously and said "No," very solemnly, while everybody laughed. He has already leased two of Dr. Woodend's offices preparatory to starting in business for himself.

"You'll less all your money if "You'll lose all your money if you go into that business, I'm afraid," said Mr. Gruber.

James F, Courtney brought the records of the Consolidated Exchange to court and, when Mr. Gruber asked him to turn them over, announced that he would fight Uncle Sam and go to jail before they left his charge. They were left in his care.

STABBED BY POLICEMAN. Fellow Tenant Had Tried to Help Him

Unstairs-Too Much Quinine, Cop Says. John Diamond, 42 years old, a policeman attached to the Elizabeth street station was arraigned in the Harlem court yester-was arraigned in the Harlem court yester-day before Magistrate Baker on the charge of stabbing John Fuchs, a bartender of 2218 Fifth avenue. The men live at 2212 Fifth avenue. The men live at 2212 Fifth avenue.

Fuchs came home early yesterday and found Diamond in the hallway. He tried to help the policeman upstairs, he says, and at the second landing Diamond drew a dirk from his pocket and plunged in into Fuchs's left breast.

In court yesterday Diamond was in so dazed a condition that he could not give any account of the assault. He said he had been suffering from a fever and had taken forty grains of quinine, and denied that he had been drinking.

Magistrate Baker paroled the prisoner in the custody of his captain for examination at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Fuchs's condition is critical. condition is critical.

DECIDED TO JUMP THE BRIDGE, And Thereby Raise Money for Wife, Family and the Demon Rum.

"I'm going to jump," he said, "Steve Brodie jumped and got a barrel of money ont of it. There's no reason why I shouldn't make some, too."

He was climbing the railing on the roadway of the Williamsburg bridge. Policeman Eschenberg got him. He said he was Joseph Campbell, a truckman of 425 East Twenty-second street. At Essex Market Magistrate Whitman remanded him for examination. The prisoner said that he had a wife and three children and that he needed money for them.

"Every man is a king in his own king dom." "Every man is a king in his own kingdom," he said, "and he has a life to deal with as he sees fit. I have a right to do with my life as I want to." Apparently he had been drinking.

TIGHE TO MADOO.

Why the Magistrate Discharged Women Arrested by Manhattan Cops.

Magistrate James G. Tighe of Brooklyn rejoined yesterday, to the criticisms of his conduct on the bench in discharging aleged disorderly women, made on Monday by Police Commissioner McAdoo, The latter accused Magistrate Tighe of acting in a "frivolous" manner and making "injudicial" rulings. Magistrate Tighe had this to say: "After thirty-one years of practice in criminal law I have found that when men have been sent over to Brooklyn from Manhattan to do special duty such as this they have always been determined to justify have always been determined to justify their being sent to do such work, and that they are a good deal like the colored phrenologist who was examining the head of another colored man, and, finding no bumps, proceeded to make some by striking him on the head with a mallet He then proceeded with his diagnosis.

"These men in coming over here reflected upon the efficiency of the Brooklyn police and were determined that they would carry out their purpose. In the absence of any proof to the contrary I assumed that the women were not prostitutes as charged, which is a natural proposition of law."

CLUB WOMEN'S TRUNKS LOST.

Delegates Mourn Costumes and Pull Wire for Presidential Candidates.

St. Louis, May 17 .- Rolla Wells, Mayor of St. Louis, in a wilderness of women, was the feature of the opening session of the convention of the National Federation of Women's Clubs at the Odeon this afternoon. Mrs. Denison introduced Mayor Wells to the meeting, and he extended to the delethe meeting, and he extended to the delegates a cordial welcome to St. Louis. He was followed by Mrs. Philip N. Moore in behalf of the State of Missouri.

Many of the women were greatly annoyed over their inability to secure their trunks which are lost somewhere about the Union station. In many instances the trunks contained the credentials of delegates as well as the handsome costumes to be work at the meetings.

ASKED TO BE PUT DOWN. Leary Did Not Want to Be Captain With

Washer as Chief of Police. ORANGE, May 17 .- At his own request Police Captain Daniel Leary of Orange has been reduced to the rank of desk sergeant. The request of Capt. Leary came after the Common Council promoted Roundsman George P. Washer to the post of Chief of Police over Capt. Leary's head. The change will go into effect on June 1 when Washer will assume his new duties. when Washer will assume his new duties.

Capt. Leary possessed practically all the powers of Chief of Police and had in fact performed all the duties of that office during the period of incapacity of Chief McChesney, dating back a long time before McChesney's resignation, a week ago. It was therefore a great disappointment to Capt. Leary's friends when he did not secure the advancement. He asked to be degraded in order that he might not come into conflict in his duties with Chief Washer.

HAGAN WORKER UP FOR ROBBERY Girl Complainant Sent to House of Detention Lest She Be "Spirited Away." James Maguire, who says he is a Tammany district captain in ex-Warden Hagan's Nineteenth Assembly district, was arraigned yesterday in the General Sessions with William O'Donnell and John Halpin, all indicted for robbery. They pleaded not all indicted for robbery. They pleaded not guilty. The complainant is Stella Tobin, a stenographer, of 107 West Sixty-third street, who was robbed and beaten while on her way home at night. Her cries brought a policeman, who arrested Halpin, and in the crowd that came to the station house the girl pointed out the other two.

Judge McMahon surprised the girl by sending her to the House of Detention, and she wept.

WILL BE KILLED, AS HE WISHES. Court of Appeals Sustains the Conviction

ALBANY, May 17 .- The Court of Appeals to-day affirmed the judgment of conviction for murder of Frank H. Burness In a dispute over wages, he shot Capt. George B. Townsend of the coasting schooner Charles K. Buckley, of which he was steward. The crime was committed while the Brooklyn. the schooner lay in her berth in Burness confessed to a long series of crimes of violence, at least two of them homicides, and asked for an early execu-tion of sentence. When his lawyer took an appeal he wrote to Gov. Odell, asking him to prevent the Court of Appeals from setting aside his sentence.

NO VACATION, MINERS SAY. Insist That Conciliation Board Shall Held Meetings Through the Summer.

TAMAQUA, Pa., May 17 .- The miners of sub-district No. 1 of the United Mine Workers, through President McElhenny, have addressed a letter to S. D. Warringer have addressed a letter to S. D. Warringer, the acting president of the conciliation board, asking that the board be reconvened to consider the grievances of the men employed at No. 9 colliery of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, who say that the condition of the veins there is such that they cannot earn fair wages at the regular contract rate.

At the last meeting of the board the operator members said that they could not meet again until fall, as Mr. Luther was going to Europe for the summer and Mr. Connell to California. The miners said the board should hold at least two said the board should be as sees two sessions a month, as grievances were continually coming up that should be disposed of. But Mr. Connell went to California, and Mr. Luther is making preparations to go to Europe. The miners of subdistrict No. 1 insist that the board reconserver ever though it is necessary to call Mr. district No. 1 insist that the board reconvene even though it is necessary to call Mr. Connell home from California and indefinitely postpone Mr. Luther's trip to Europe.

"The miners get no vacation," one of their number said to-day, "and they surely work harder than the operators. Work should come before pleasure, and we insist that the board convene."

New Civic Conciliation Board.

Charles A. Moore, chairman of the New York Civic Federation, has appointed this new conciliation committee:

For employers—Morris M. Marks, chairman: Louis B. Schram, John Cooper, Benjamin D. Traitel and Edgar L. Marston of Blair & Co.; For workers—Samuel B. Donnelly, Edward A. Moffett, Robert E. Neidig, Henry White and A. J. Boulton. For the public—Francis B. Swayne, Walter H. Page, C. T. Root and Roland Phillips.

His mind has been failing for two years. Last winter his wife was sworn in as assistant postmaster. Dr. F. W. Westcott of Scotch Plains and Dr. Harr ison of Westfield examined Mr. Dunn and dec's red him mentally unbalanced. For years he was a prosperous merchant. He was also a member of several fraternal organizations. His son George, while suffering from the same disease, jumped off a ferryboat some time ago and is now in a santiarium.

TO SAVE THIS PORT'S TRADE,

COMMERCE COMMISSION HEAR-ING BEGINS TO-DAY.

Meeting Will Be Held Here—Protest Against the Present System of Differential Freight Rates—How Exports Have Been Diverted From New York

WASHINGTON, May 17 .- The members of the Interstate Commerce Commission left Washington to-day for New York, and will hold an open hearing there to-morrow in the matter of differential freight rates to and from North Atlantic ports, which they acknowledge to be one of the most important questions ever brought before the commission. The hearing was called at the request of the Merchants' Association of New York and similar bodies in Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

The Merchants' Association asserts that the present system of differentials is extremely unfair to the port of New York, and correspondingly discriminating in favor Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore. of Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore. In 1882 more than 50 per cent. of all the wheat, oats and corn exported through the Atlantic and Gulf ports went from the port of New York, while in 1896 this percentage had fallen to a little more than 25 per cent., and at the present time it is probably even less. The New York merchants argue that while New York may for years continue to hold its import trade, notwithstanding the gradual loss of its exports, eventually imports will flow n through the same ports from which exports go out, and that if the larger part of grain exports are diverted by these difports go out, and that if the larger part of grain exports are diverted by these differentials from New York, the result will finally be the loss to that city of a corresponding amount of its import trade.

A statement issued to-day by the Bureau of Statistics is of interest. It is shown that the average annual receipts of grain and flour, reduced to grain equivalents, at New York, Boston, Baltimore and Philadelphia, during the last twenty-four years was auring the last twenty-four years, was $259,000,000. Of this average annual quantity, 52.2 per cent. went to New York, 14.6 per cent. to Boston, 13.7 per cent. to Philadelphia and 19.5 per cent. to Baltimore.

Philadelphia and 19.5 per cent. to Baltimore. The statement adds:

"These proportions seem to have had a fairly stable relation up to about 1889. A noteworthy change in the proportions received by these ports began to be apparent about 1890, when the percentage of receipts at New York dropped to 50.9 per cent. and that of Boston to 13.1 per cent., while the percentage of receipts at Philadelphia increased to 15.6 per cent. and that of Baltimore to 20.4 per cent."

It is evident from the above figures upon just what grounds the claims of the New York merchants are based. On the other hand, the Philadelphia and Baltimore interests insist that to abolish the existing differentials would take from them the little foreign trade they are now enabled to maintain.

enabled to maintain.

The railroads and the commercial bodies are working together, to the end that an amicable settlement of the complex question of differentials may be reached, and this fact, together with the probability that the railroads will adopt whatever recommendation the commission will make recommendation the commissi on the subject, makes the hearing of much

LUCKY WASHINGTON BOYS.

Encouraged to Play Baseball on All Vacant Lots, Which Thus Escape Taxation.

WASHINGTON, May 17 .- Ever since Corporation Counsel Duvall of the District of Columbia rendered an opinion that unimproved property which was devoted to "educational athletics" was exempt from taxation, many well to do Washing-tonians with unimproved real estate on their hands have been displaying remarkable interest in baseball. There are more ama-teur ball nines flourishing in Washington just now than ever before. At the tax office it isn't safe to mention "educational baseball," as the latest tax dodging device is called, and the District Assessor and Corporation Counsel don't speak with cor-diality when they meet.

One of the tax dodgers makes this confession: "I've got seven big vacant lots in the best part of town, and the way the Assessor's office soaks me for taxes is something frightful. This year, instead of paying taxes, I fitted out a couple of kid base-ball teams, and they've promised to play on the seven lots for me all summer. Edu-cational baseball is a great thing."

The District Commissioners have the opinion of the Corporation Counsel under advisement, together with a long protest

WIRELESS TELEGRAPH LAWS. Army and Navy Board Thinks Federal Government Should Control.

WASHINGTON, May 17 .- When Secretary Moody returns to Washington the Bureau of Equipment will recommend to him that measures be taken by the Federal Government to secure control over wireless tele-graph companies. The idea is to regulate the use of wireless telegraphy so that in-struments in one State will be permitted to operate only when they do not interfere with instruments in another State. This control probably cannot be secured under laws concerning interstate commerce, and laws concerning interstate commerce, and it will be necessary to go to Congress for appropriate legislation.

The recommendation of the Bureau of Equipment is the outgrowth of the discussion by the army and navy joint board of the question of adopting measures for the control of wireless telegraphy. In the opinion of members of the joint board, it will be impossible to make wireless telegraphy valuable for commercial purposes or in time of war unless its control is vested in the general Government. in the general Government.

Gunst and his wife have had frequent quarrels of late. Only Monday night a policeman had to be called in from the street to keep him quiet.

Gunst began another quarrel with his wife at noon yesterday. A lew minutes later she fell from the window of their room. She caught the iron framing of the awning of a grocery store on the first floor and escaped with a small cut on the scalp. She was taken to the Presbyterian Hospital.

The Gunsts have two children—Ernest, 8 years old, and Joseph, 5 years old. Joseph was in the room yesterday when his mother fell.

"Mother was getting dinner," he said later, "and asked papa to go out for some-thing. Papa opened the window and threw-mamma out."

S, Shaffer, who runs the grocery store on the ground floor, saw the woman fall. He said last night that Mrs. Gunst was not thrown from the window, but the she had climbed out on the window sill to get away the saw the climbed out on the window sill to get away from her husband. Others who saw the woman fall were doubtful as to whether she tumbled in an effort to get away from Gunst or whether he threw her out. Gunst is a German, 35 years old. His wife is two years his junior and is a Swede. She was formerly a lady's maid.

Hitherto it has been the invariable custom at these annual reunions of the regiment to select the senior surviving officer of the regiment as the reviewing officer, and for the last ten years Gen. James McLeer, the brigade commander, has officiated as such. The fact that he has been entirely ignored this year has caused much ficiated as such. The fact that he has been entirely ignored this year has caused much comment among military men. This is believed to be due to the friction between Gen. McLeer and Col. BUSINESS CHANCES.

A MECHANICAL ENGINEER, in whom the commercial qualities predominate, has invented a novel improvement for automobile and marine motors. The improvement has been thoroughly demonstrated by the construction of several gasoline motors, which are in successful operation. A liberal proposition will be made to a desirable associate who appreciates practical methods and who will advance a few thousand dollars for the construction of automobiles embracing the improvement, for which orders are already available. Address J. T., 7 West 168th st., New York.
